Expansion of Brown & Toland's Leadership Team as Company Growth Continues

Thursday, August 30,
2018

Oakland, Calif (August 30, 2018) – Brown & Toland Chief Executive Officer Kelly Robison announced today the addition of three executives to its leadership team: Chief Financial Officer Lynn Grennan, Vice President, Business Development Therese Crossett, and Vice President, Human Capital, Elisa Johnson.

“We are delighted to welcome Lynn, Therese, and Elisa to Brown & Toland’s senior leadership team,” said Robison. “Brown & Toland is in the process of expanding its model of coordinated care to physicians and patients across the Bay Area through HMO, ACO and PPO products. These seasoned executives bring additional talent and experience to position us to continue our expansion, and bring higher quality care to more Bay Area residents.”

Grennan he has more than 20 years’ healthcare experience in finance and operations, including physician practice management, medical group and independent practice association affiliation and growth, mergers and acquisitions, and strategic and business planning.

Crossett, who most recently worked at OptumCare, where she was Vice President, Market Development, has more than 22 years’ experience in marketing and business development in healthcare, technology, life sciences, and other industries.

Johnson has more than 20 years of experience leading global Human Capital teams internationally, from start-ups to Fortune 20 companies, and has held leadership positions in Human Capital and Enterprise Talent Development for healthcare organizations.

“We have the team in place to take Brown & Toland to the next level,” said Robison. “As the healthcare industry continues to change, we are committed to growing and to bringing innovation and solutions to more Bay Area physicians and patients. I’m excited about the difference we can make in the lives of those we serve.”
